

ELA CCRS Alignment Evaluation and Rating Tool

Criterion #1—Text Complexity: Does the resource provide regular practice with complex text and its academic language?

Dimension 1.1 Text Complexity and Quality: Most of the texts included in the resource are at the appropriate level of complexity as defined by the CCR standards; all texts are worth reading. (Support documents: CCRS-Associated Quantitative Measures in Reading Anchor 10 and Qualitative Analysis Rubric)	Evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Publisher or instructor supplies list of texts in the submission with their quantitative measures, and texts intended for close reading are within the appropriate band of complexity for the level. ● Conducts qualitative analyses of passages to differentiate between texts worth reading and those not worth reading (for a full resource/textbook, analyze 30% of the texts). ● Provides text-centered learning to advance students toward independent reading of complex texts at CCRS level. ● Texts are content-rich. They exhibit exceptional craft and thought and/or provide useful information. ● Makes reading text(s) closely a central focus of instruction. ● Provides a balance of informational and literary texts. ● Specific to Level A-C Readers: Include a progression of texts as students learn to read (e.g., additional phonic patterns are introduced, increasing sentence length).

Criterion #2—Evidence: Does the resource provide reading, writing, and speaking activities grounded in evidence from text?

Dimension 2.1 Growth of Comprehension and Using Evidence From Texts: An overwhelming majority (80%) of all questions reviewed are high-quality, text-dependent, and text-specific questions. (Support document: Checklist for Evaluating Question Quality)	Evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Questions are text-dependent and text-specific. They require readers to produce evidence from the text. ● Questions are sequenced to build toward more coherent understanding and analysis ● Questions address the central ideas of the text. Take particular note to see if they support students’ ability to address the culminating task. ● Questions target level-specific standard(s).

Dimension 2.2 Emphasis on Argumentative and Informative Writing and Speaking: An overwhelming majority (80%) of all writing and speaking assignments reviewed require argumentative and informative writing and speaking. They require students to draw on evidence from texts to present careful	Evidence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Most writing and speaking assignments require students to provide text-based evidence. Note any assignments that do not require writing to or speaking about the sources they are reading. ● Facilitates rich text-based discussions and writing through specific, thought-provoking questions about common texts (including read alouds and, when applicable, illustrations, audio/video and other media). ● Students are directed to discuss the texts with one another as a regular part of the process.

(Support document: Checklist for Evaluating Question Quality)

- Argumentative and informative writing and speaking make up 80% of the writing and speaking assignments. Calculate a percentage of aligned assignments.

Criterion #3—Knowledge: Does the resource build knowledge through content-rich nonfiction?

Dimension 3.1

Emphasis on Reading Content-Rich

Texts: The resource accentuates comprehending quality informational texts independently across disciplines.

Evidence:

- Resource provides substantial attention to high-quality informational texts.
- There are ample opportunities for regular independent reading of texts that appeal to students' interests to develop both knowledge and a love of reading.
- Builds students' content knowledge in various areas: careers, community, social studies, the arts, science, and/or technical subjects through the coherent selection of texts.

Dimension 3.2

Building Knowledge Through Reading Widely About a Topic and Research:

Most passages reviewed are organized around a topic or line of inquiry; the resource includes regular research assignments.

Evidence:

- The collection of passages is carefully sequenced and organized with the aim of increasing knowledge on a topic or focused area of inquiry.
- The resource requires students to engage in regular, brief research projects to enable them to build knowledge about topics they are studying.

Criterion #4—Instructional Support and Assessment: Does the resource provide structure and support for standards-aligned instruction and assessment?

Dimension 4.1

Instructional Support: The resource is responsive to varied student learning needs. (Support document: Reading Standards: Foundational Skills K-5 on p. 40 of the CCRS full text)

Evidence:

- Questions and tasks offer students opportunities for productive struggle.
- Integrates instruction of reading, writing, language, speaking, and listening skills.
- Allows students varying opportunities to demonstrate knowledge (writing, speaking, multi-media, etc.)
- Integrates appropriate supports in reading, writing, listening & speaking for students who are EL, have disabilities, or are reading below the level appropriate text band
- Gradually removes supports (i.e. visual prompts, paragraph frames, fixed dialogues, etc.), requiring students to work independently.
- Provides all students (including emergent and beginning readers) with extensive opportunities to engage with level appropriate complex texts, including appropriate scaffolding so that students directly experience the complexity of text
- Specific to Level A-C Readers: Emphasize the explicit, systematic development of foundational literacy skills (concepts of print, phonological awareness, the alphabetic principle, high frequency sight words, and phonics).

Dimension 4.2

Evidence:

Assessment: The resource regularly provides opportunities to assess whether students are mastering standards-based content and skills.

- The resource is designed to elicit direct, observable evidence of the degree to which a student can independently demonstrate the targeted standards.
- Assesses student proficiency using methods that are unbiased and accessible to all students
- Includes aligned rubrics or assessment guidelines that provide sufficient guidance for interpreting student performance.
- Use varied modes of assessment of student progress towards building knowledge.

Date of Publication: 2008 Evaluation Date: March 9, 2018

1. Rate the resource against the criteria in the ELA CCRS Alignment Evaluation Tool. Use the dimensions and the evidence statements in the CCRS Alignment Evaluation tool to guide your ratings.
2. Give an overall score for the resource. Summarize the overall strengths and weaknesses of the resource with respect to the three criteria to score the resource.

Individual Dimension Rating Descriptors

Strong Alignment	Little to no revision needed. There is evidence in the resource to indicate that at least 80% of the dimension is met.
Revisions Necessary	There is evidence in the resource to indicate that at least 50% of the dimension is met. There may be potential to use the resource with revisions.
Weak Alignment	There is little to no evidence in the resource to indicate the dimension is met. Consider choosing another resource.

Summary of key strengths and weakness:

Strengths:

- It can be a great resource for a blended model of instruction and independent learning.
- Offers speaking, vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, listening, reading, writing and life skills.
- Teacher can monitor student progress online.
- Videos provide: content language, ability to read and listen to text, immediate feedback by the way of comprehension scores and quizzes.

- A great way to introduce computer skills: mouse, click, scroll, keyboarding, letters, punctuation, and use of other function keys.
- Easily used as a blended model of instruction with students.
- Because of the vast collection of themed units, it is easy for students to read and work independently online based on their interests.
- Since students perform work and are scored individually, teachers receive accurate feedback of a student's strengths and weaknesses.

Weaknesses:

- This resource is not standards aligned and is not substantial enough to be used as a primary teaching tool.
- Some of the texts are appropriately leveled, but a qualitative analysis will allow the teacher to provide better, sequenced, text-dependent questions for students.
- The resource is weak in academic vocabulary, but there is a lot of vocabulary, and it can easily be targeted by the teacher.
- In order to address the shifts of complexity and evidence, significant supplementation is needed.
